GENERAL

1

Bystander society: conformity and complicity in Nazi Germany and the Holocaust by Mary Fulbrook. New York: Oxford University Press, 2023.

940.53 F8B9 (208523)

In this powerful and revelatory new work, historian Mary Fulbrook takes on one of the most fraught issues in modern times: the role of ordinary Germans in enabling the rise of Nazism and with it the exclusion, persecution, and then extermination of millions of people across Europe. Mumbai : A million islands by Sidharth Bhatia. Gurugram: HarperCollins India, 2025.

307.7609 B4M8 (208529)

Since the East India Company merged seven islands into Bombay (now Mumbai), change has been constant-but now it is used as a weapon for displacement, disguised as development. Slums are erased overnight to make way for luxury towers priced in tens of crores. The working class is pushed to the margins-literally-and into distant housing projects with no infrastructure, transport or sanitation. Click here for more details.

Imposter syndrome and AI: navigating human identity in the age of intelligent machines by Laeeq Razzak Janjua [Editor]. Hershey: IGI Global, 2026.

155.2 I61 (208532)

With the rapid advancements in artificial intelligence (AI), the boundaries between human capability and machine intelligence are increasingly blurred. As AI demonstrates creativity and problem-solving mimicry once thought to be uniquely human, many individuals find themselves questioning their own value and authenticity as a manifestation of imposter syndrome. Buildit: building Blinkit in an evolving India by Albinder Singh Dhindsa. Gurugram: Harper Business, 2026.

381.1420 D4B8 (208534)

Sometime in early 2014, Albinder Singh Dhindsa set out to build a better way to deliver groceries across India—driven by urgency and belief, and with no fallback plan. What followed was a crash course in navigating a complex social and economic landscape, rife with unreliable infrastructure and supply chains, the instability of a rapidly evolving gig economy, capital that arrived with its own risks, and pigeon poop problems in his warehouses.
